NEW WARRANTS SECURED

Alleged Revolutionists Here Face Additional Charges.

United States Marshal John Houghton, of Galveston, arrived in the city yesterday morning from Brownsville, and placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff C. W. Young four warrants for the arrests of Mexicans who are now confined in the county jail, but against whom fresh indictments have been returned by the federal grand jury at Brownsville.

The warrants are for the arrest of Guillermo Morales, Anastacio Perlas, Juan Fernandez and Emilio Chapa, for alleged violations of the United States neutrality laws. They are the outgrowth of supposed participation in the Revista uprising along the Texas border.

All of the prisoners were brought to Corpus several weeks ago from Laredo and placed in the county jail, pending the going of $1,000 bond each, except Chapa, who was held as an attached witness under the same amount of bond.

It has been understood for the past several days that the men held would furnish bond. It is thought for this reason the fresh warrants were placed in the sheriff's hands, so that the Revista sympathizers could be arrested on the new charges as soon as released under bond.

Should Emilio Chapa remain in the county jail until he is used as a witness, which may not be until next April, he will have a neat bunch of money coming to him, as he is drawing a dollar a day for every day he is confined in the county jail, the amount being paid by Uncle Sam.

Return From Hunt.

Col. Frank P. Holland, of Dallas, publisher of Holland's Magazine and the Farm and Ranch, with his son, Frank I. Holland, Jr., and E. H. Kemp, associate editor of Holland's Magazine, arrived in the city yesterday from Santa Gertrudis, where the party has been hunting. Each succeeded in killing a fine buck. They will leave this morning on their return to Dallas.

Did Not Run Last Night.

The carnival which is showing on the hill under the auspices of the fire department seems to have been running in hard luck ever since it opened here last Monday. Only one day this week has it been able to do business, this was Wednesday night. Monday and Tuesday nights the weather was altogether too threatening for the shows, as was mentioned and added that it might well be.

COUNCIL MEETING

Thought Action Will Be Taken on Car Extensions.

The big event of the council meeting scheduled to take place at the city hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and which will be the first meeting to be attended by the mayor since he was granted leave of absence by the council about four weeks ago, will probably be the action which the council takes in regard to the petition of the street railway company for an extension along Railroad avenue to make a complete loop on the South Bluff line, and the petition from the same company for the right to run a line down the Bay View driveway.

Members of the council are reticent in discussing what they think will be the probable outcome. One and all, they have said that they will stand for the wishes of the people. The question arises as to whether it is their intention to accept the version of the proposed parties in the South Bluff section of the city as the will of the electorate. Those who are not directly interested in the matter are also reluctant to speak in regard to the matter. The city attorney is reported as having said that there will be no harm done by allowing the street car company to go down the driveway, as it is simply wide to accommodate both the street car line and vehicles.
